

Coughing is common in preschool children and is usually short lived.

However you may need to take your child to the doctor if their cough is:

- a wet cough – this sounds ‘chesty’ and is phlegmy,
- or a cough that lasts more than three weeks,
- or a cough that worries you.

Phone Healthline on 0800 611 116 for free advice.

For more information go to www.ttophs.govt.nz/coughs

Take Care of Coughs