

Bay of Plenty Kai Hui

Event Programme – Friday 16th October – World Food Day

Time	Items
8.30am	Doors open to public: event registration and information stands open
9.00am	Karakia - Tautau Kopae, local kaumatua
	Gareth Moore-Jones, Master of Ceremonies (MC) sets out the structure of the day
	Address from Todd Muller, Bay of Plenty MP
	Welcome from Letham White, Chief Financial Officer, Bay of Plenty District Health Board
9.20am	“Our country’s food - exploring what the national food scene means for you” Emily Dowding-Smith, Transformation Leader, Sustainable Business Network
9.40am	“How Tauranga City Council is supporting local food issues” Michelle Elborn, Sustainability Advisor; and Rebecca Maiden, Manager, Resource Recovery and Waste, Tauranga City Council
9.50am	“What is happening locally – successes, challenges and solutions” Local Community Food Panel Discussion - interactive session with the audience, featuring: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Lyn Paul, Chairperson, Incorporated Society - Tauranga Farmers Market and representing Farmers Markets New Zealand (FMNZ) ▪ Jackie Paine, Volunteer Coordinator, Good Neighbour - Food Rescue ▪ Catherine Dunton-McLeod, Plenty Permaculture Team and Bay of Plenty Permablitz ▪ Chris Lambdin, Brown Owl Organics, Volunteer, Rotorua ▪ Dave Hursthouse and Lily Tworogal, Garden Coordinators ‘The Rock’ Community Gardens, Papamoa
10.30am	Morning tea – featuring: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Green Smoothies, courtesy of Julia from Julia’s Edible Weeds; and ▪ Michelle Adam’s homemade Spiced Vege and Date Cake Networking and mapping our local food scene activity - with Emily Dowding-Smith
11.00am	“The Edible Canterbury story – successes, challenges, inspiration” Dr Matt Morris, Edible Canterbury Coordinator, Edible Canterbury
11.30am	“Solving complex food issues through social enterprise” Rachel Glasier, Partnership and Development Director, Ākina Foundation – Growing Social Enterprise

Time	Items
11.50am	“A Bay of Plenty Kai movement?” Dana Thomson, Senior Health Improvement Advisor, Toi Te Ora – Public Health Service
12.00 noon	Lunch – aiming to showcase healthy, sustainable food, featuring: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Produce from the EnviroHub Bay of Plenty’s teaching garden ▪ Support from chef, Stephen Cameron; and Casey Hume, nutritionist, the Real Foodie ▪ Opportunities for informal networking, viewing information stands, raising open space topics
12.30pm	Open Space Sessions - two half an hour sessions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Attendees may raise topics of their choice ▪ Opportunities to join different group discussions around the room
1.30pm	Group discussion featuring: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Sharing outcomes of open space sessions ▪ Opportunity for further questions for speakers and local community food panel ▪ Reflections from the day, where to next, evaluation forms
2.00pm	Formal event close
Following close of the event	Tour of EnviroHub Bay of Plenty’s Teaching Garden, with Noel Peterson, Gardens Coordinator, EnviroHub Bay of Plenty Please meet outside the Historic Village Hall

Another World Food Day Event – Just Eat It Film Screening

Time	Items
5.30pm	Doors open at venue: Just Eat It - A film about food waste At Studio 145 (145 The Strand, Tauranga) the event starts at 5.30pm Tickets will be $25 with proceeds going to the Good Neighbour Trust and their work on food rescue. Within the ticket price, participants will receive snacks, dinner (street food style), popcorn, and a Hopt Soda. Snacks/dinner will be whipped up by Peter Blakeway. Purchase tickets by emailing hi@justbecauseprojects.com
7.00pm	Movie screening commences